Develop your spiritual care skills in an urban justice setting! The Training and Counseling Center at St. Luke's Episcopal Church offers a unique Clinical Pastoral Education for clergy and seminarians.

Engaged Social Action: TACC's Engaged Social Action approach accelerates the learning process by exposing students to people and experiences that are different from oneself. These experiences awaken one's pastoral gifts and enhance an understanding of the living human documents in both students and care-seekers. TACC's social justice settings offer a unique opportunity to deepen this process.

Learn CPE in a rich learning environment: You will perform your clinical hours by working with disenfranchised citizens in downtown Atlanta – individuals who might grapple with homelessness, mental illness, substance abuse, and other social stressors.
